

ANTHONY TRIVINO

FOR CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR

PRESS KIT

WHO IS ANTHONY TRIMINO?

Hi, I am Anthony. I am not a politician or celebrity. I am an entrepreneur who built one of the fastest growing privately held companies in America—and I did so without sacrificing my two most important roles as husband and father.

I am also the son of an immigrant who fled a communist Cuba in pursuit of the American Dream—and that American Dream is under attack. Our First Amendment is under attack, our Second Amendment is under attack, our medical freedoms are under attack, our children's innocence is under attack, as well as our families, our businesses and our ability to worship.

But I still believe there is hope for California. I believe we can and will protect our First and Second Amendment rights. I believe we can and should protect our children from radical ideologies like critical race theory being taught in our schools.

I will fight for small businesses and I will protect our churches. I believe that healthcare decisions should be made at your dinner table, not in Sacramento. I believe that there are more of us who stand against the few, and if we rise together with one voice, we can restore our great state.

So join me, join the movement, and let's Liberate California.

WHAT I STAND FOR

1 KEEPING CALIFORNIA OPEN

As governor, I won't just open California back up—I will ensure it never closes again. We will open small businesses, put kids back in classrooms, reopen churches, restore our hospitality industry and make California the most sought-after destination for travelers, businesses and entertainment in the nation.

2 FREEDOM AND LIBERTY

Our inalienable rights, enshrined in the California Constitution, have been under attack from the very people duty-bound to defend them. As governor, my first priority will be to restore and protect our God-given freedoms to be a free-thinking people able to pursue life, liberty and happiness without the overreaching and unnecessary involvement of government.

FAITH

I believe faith is a verb. The Bible actually says that faith without works is dead. I believe it's time to awaken the righteous anger that has been dormant inside many of us for far too long. Government, the media and extreme voices on both sides of the aisle have exploited the differences between us instead of promoting the fundamental core beliefs we all share—that we are all born with God-given, inalienable rights. Rights that supersede government reach and intervention.

4 FAMILY

I believe the home is where we begin to solve the vast majority of societal problems that exist today—especially around drug use, crime, overpopulated prisons and our foster care system. Instead of promoting family, our government has structured assistance in such a way that it incentivizes broken homes, especially within minority communities. We need a family-first approach to policy in California. Our families are the pillars on which safe, secure communities are built.

5 EMPOWERING PARENTS

As a parent, I believe that decisions regarding your children's health and education should be made in the home, not by politicians. I will honor and support the sanctity of family and restrict the government's ability to trespass on your rights and liberties as parents.

6 EDUCATION

A continual decrease in investment in education and an outdated approach to teaching have made California “the least-educated state in America.” This education gap should be considered a statewide emergency based on the long-lasting implications it has on our economy, communities and future generations.

7 REDUCING STATE TAX

Wasteful spending, failed projects and the mass exodus of large corporations and high-net-worth individuals have left our middle class unnecessarily burdened with picking up the tab through the most exorbitant and unfair state taxes in the nation. As governor, I will immediately reduce the tax burden imposed by previous administrations so that California families can finally keep, spend and invest more of their hard-earned dollars on what matters most to them.

8 ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

States like Texas and Florida continue to lure our large manufacturing, automotive and tech companies away from California, along with the jobs and revenue they generate. I'll enact policies that cut regulations, empower sustainable growth, stop companies from fleeing and make California the most business-friendly state in America.

9 BUSINESS

I believe that all businesses are essential to the people they employ, the communities they support and the business owners they belong to. Our government should not have the overreaching authority to determine what size or type of business should be given special operating privileges over others. And they shouldn't be allowed to misuse that authority to threaten, intimidate, fine or incarcerate those that choose to operate as a means of survival.

I will stand with businesses to ensure that Sacramento is never given another opportunity to choke our local economy or punish our entrepreneurs. Under my administration, California will remain open for business.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

The healthcare system is fundamentally broken. We focus on treating symptoms and diseases with little attention placed on prevention. I will use the power and platform of my office to educate, empower and encourage all Californians to better understand the importance of natural, holistic approaches to health and wellness.

11 VACCINATION BY CHOICE. NOT MANDATE.

As governor, I will oppose any overreaching policies implemented or proposed by the current administration. Grounded in science and data versus fear and propaganda, I will reject any recommendation to implement mandatory vaccinations and vaccine passports across the state, including in our schools, which many see as simply another form of discrimination.

The job of government is to provide you with the information you need to make informed healthcare decisions for you and your family—not to overstep or force unjustified compliance.

HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS

Regulations and poor planning have stifled housing development, and policies addressing homelessness have failed due to weak local leadership and a lack of strategic collaboration. I'll work with community leaders, faith-based organizations and non-profits to scale already existing grassroots efforts across the state to deliver immediate, measurable and sustainable results for our growing homeless population.

ENDORSEMENTS

BRANDON TATUM

BLEXIT Co-Founder Endorses Anthony Trimino for California Governor

WATCH BRANDON'S FULL SPEECH

Brandon Tatum, BLEXIT co-founder and former Tucson police officer, recently joined Anthony at the Trimino campaign launch event to announce his endorsement of Anthony for California Governor.

You've seen Brandon sharing his vision, purpose and drive on The Ingraham Angle, Fox Business, Fox & Friends, Headline News, Newsmax, One America News or heard him on Ben Shapiro's podcast. Brandon says, "I want to help everybody that I can reach, to pull them out of the brainwashed mentality of the Democratic party."

Brandon said of Anthony, "This is not somebody running a campaign and saying, 'Well, I don't have experience, I may not know it all...' This is somebody who's getting it done. Who started from nothing. How could you not honor and support somebody who started from nothing, and built an empire?"

"Somebody you know you could trust to deal with finances and the budget and run a team and have people believe in him."

JESSE HOLGUIN

LEXIT founder endorses Anthony Trimino for California Governor

Jesse Holguin, former gang member and founder of the grassroots LEXIT movement, recently announced his endorsement of Anthony Trimino for Governor of California.

After meeting and talking about their similar upbringing, the failures of Gavin Newsom and California Democrats, and the destructive power of leftist politics in minority and Latino communities, Jesse appeared at the Trimino campaign launch event on June 19, 2021, where he said of Anthony, “He fills all the check marks.” Jesse shared his story and his thoughts about Newsom, the recall and the other Republican candidates.

PRESS RELEASE

Anthony Trimino Announces His Candidacy for the 2021 California Gubernatorial Election

Wednesday, May 26, 2021

IRVINE, CA – Anthony Trimino is proud to announce his candidacy for Governor of California in the 2021 recall election.

As CEO and founder of one of the fastest-growing privately held companies in America, Anthony brings diverse people, ideas and perspectives together to build solutions that address and overcome the complex challenges facing business, healthcare and our local communities. As governor, Anthony will bring his entrepreneurial drive to Sacramento. Deeply rooted in faith, family and freedom, he will fight against government-as-usual politics and special interests.

“I will aggressively and tirelessly work to protect your God-given freedoms and liberties, not restrict or limit them. I will leverage decades of experience to find solutions to the complex challenges we face and make sure that the California of tomorrow fulfills its promise—for our families, for our children, for our future.”

While this may be his first political campaign, his family has a rich history of looking ahead to build a better future—without the overreaching involvement of government.

Anthony’s grandparents fled Cuba during Castro’s revolution. They sought the promise of the American Dream right here in California—for their family and for their children. They rolled up their sleeves, started a small business that still exists today and built a life they could be proud of.

His brand of authentic leadership and experience is focused on uniting people to get things done. He’s not here to play politics. He’s here to deliver meaningful and lasting change for every person, family and business in California.

This isn’t about a recall. It’s about a reckoning.
